ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, smile upon thy children!
Gladly we greet thee, altogether lovely;
Peace be within thy classic halls and temples,
Hail, Alma Mater dear.

Hail to the heroes who have gone before us,
Young men and maidens, filled with true devotion!
Bright is their glory, fadeless and undying,
Hail to our heroes gone!

Hail to our classmates, bound by ties ne'er broken;
Here once again we pledge our vows of friendship;
Brave hearts and true hearts sound aloud the chorus:
Long live our comrades dear!

Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather, and bring to thee gracious salutations;
Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus,
Hail Alma Mater dear!

STETSON SONGS

GO, HATTERS, GO (Feasel)

Hatters, you will win the game; Listen to our cheer
(Go, Hatters)

Shout the glory of your name; Spread it far and near (Yea, Hatters)

Alma Mater, praise to thee and our teammates true;
(Go, Hatters)

Marching on to victory. Let's Go, Hatters, Go!

WE ARE THE GUYS FROM STETSON U. (arr. Giffin)

We are the guys from Stetson U. you hear so much about.
The other schools all envy us whenever we go out,
SO, fill your lungs and sing it out and shout it to the skies,
The Green and White forever, we'll be loyal 'til we die.
As we go marching and the band begins to play,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
You'll hear us shouting: Stetson U. will win the day.
Fight!

STETSON HATTERS (Newlin)

Here comes our team in green and white.
They're out for victory here tonight.
See them fight, fight, fight,
See them stand for the right,
Now watch them as they go,
Now sing it: S-T-E-T-S-O-N, Stetson Hatters, Hatters,
S-T-E-T-S-O-N, Stetson Hatters, Hatters,
Guard that line, now see us shine,
For we're the guys from Stetson U.
For it is: S-T-E-T-S-O-N, Stetson Hatters, Hatters
S-T-E-T-S-O-N, Stetson Hatters, Hatters,
Guard that line, now see us shine,
For we're the guys from Stetson U.

SCHOOL SONG (Smith-Chapman)

Dear Alma Mater,
We love your spirit,
We love your valor true and fine.
Your colors waving in all the glories
Of the honors won through time.
Our school we cherish, with all its glory;
There's not another one compares.
We love its victories
And Hatters all will fight
For dear old Stetson U.

HISTORY

Stetson was founded in 1883, became a college in 1885, and a university in 1887. Known first as DeLand Academy, after the principal founder of the town, Henry A. DeLand, its name was changed to Stetson University in 1889 in honor of the well-known hat manufacturer who gave generously of his time and means. From 1898 to 1910, Stetson was affiliated with the University of Chicago in a unique student exchange plan. The College of Law, organized in 1900, was admitted to membership in the Association of American Law Schools in 1931. The next year the University was accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Its School of Music became a member of the National Association of Schools of Music in 1936. The School of Business was organized in 1940. Popularly known as Stetson University, the legal name of the corporation is John B. Stetson University.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Each student at Stetson University is subject to the rules and regulations of the University as printed in the Annual Catalogue and in the Student Handbook. Failure to acquaint oneself with these publications can result in serious consequences. Below are listed some of the regulations about which a student will be concerned frequently, and a brief statement of the University's expectations concerning the students' conduct.

1. Change of Registration. See page 19, Annual Catalogue.
2. Withdrawal from University. See page 16, Annual Catalogue.
3. Academic Probation and Suspension. See page 15, Annual Catalogue.
4. Class Attendance. See page 14, Annual Catalogue.
5. Grading System. See pages 14 and 15, Annual Catalogue.
6. Physical Education. See pages 16 and 53, Annual Catalogue.
7. Expenses. See pages 17, 18, and 19, Annual Catalogue.
8. Chapel Attendance. As a church-related University, Stetson considers the regular worship service held each Wednesday and the Friday assembly to be an integral part of the total educational experience of each student. Both programs are designed for the purpose of drawing the student body and faculty into a unit through common worship and through the sharing of educational and aesthetic experience. Hence attendance at both programs is required of all students. The following regulations have been designed to emphasize the important place held by the services in the estimation of the University.

   (1). Each student is allowed three absences in each semester which need not be accounted for.

   (2). The fourth, and subsequent, absences, unless excused by the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men, will be recorded on the student's permanent record. They will become a part of his file and will be referred to if his conduct or academic record is under consideration. They will be there for reference when, forexample, prospective employers inquire concerning the student's total record at Stetson. They will be considered together with other evidence if the student should become eligible at any time to be dropped from the University.

(3). Each absence in excess of three, unless excused by the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men, in any one semester will result in the deduction of one-half quality point.

(4). If a student's unexcused absences exceed four in any one semester, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken. The procedure will follow that for any other serious infraction of University rules and may result in suspension from the University.

9. Conduct. Stetson University expects its students to conduct themselves as ladies and gentlemen. Such conduct is a part of essential character and cannot be legislated. However, there are certain rules and regulations concerning conduct, on and off the campus, which have been printed for the guidance of all concerned. These rules appear in this Student Handbook, and each student should familiarize himself with them. Students are advised against having charge accounts.

FOR ALL FRESHMEN

Purpose of Freshman Rules: To create among students an enthusiastic school spirit and the loyalty that will last not only through four years of University life, but will carry over into life after college, and make for a better alumni group. All freshmen of Stetson University are expected to comply with these rules at all times with the exceptions as stated by the committee on freshman rules.

IMPORTANT: Upperclassmen must refrain from requesting any act which will offend the sense of pride or honor of any freshman.

1. Learn University traditions, customs, and procedures.
2. Make acquaintance with your classmates and others as soon as posible. Stetson is a friendly school. Everyone speaks to everybody.
3. Take an active interest in all student elections.
4. Keep off the grass!
5. Join only those extra-curricular activities in which you are really interested. They will be an important part of your campus life, but remember that "majoring" in extra-curricular activities means neglecting important studies.
6. Freshmen caps shall be worn at all times except on Sundays, when in attendance at formal affairs, in classes, or chapel.
7. All school songs appearing in the Handbook are to be memorized during Freshman Week and are to be recited to upperclassmen on request.
8. All freshmen are required to attend all student assemblies.

9. If called upon by upperclassmen to perform duties of a constructive nature, freshmen are expected to respond promptly and willingly.
10. On a date set by the Freshman Rules Committee, contests will be held between the freshmen and an equal number of upperclassmen. If the freshmen are victorious, they may discard their caps; if the upperclassmen win, the freshmen must wear their caps until further notice by the Freshman Rules Committee.
11. Frshmen must carry Student Handbooks with them constantly during the first semester.

FACULTY ADVISORY SYSTEM

Each student at Stetson has a faculty adviser, a member of the faculty who has been chosen to assist him in making sound decisions regarding his academic program, his vocational choice, and other personal plans. In most instances, the adviser is a professor of the academic field in which the student wishes to specialize.

An entering student has many opportunities to become acquainted with his adviser during his first few weeks in college through participation in the Orientation Program. He learns more about his own interests, aptitudes and abilities by means of tests and personal conferences. He learns about academic requirements and vocational opportunities from reading and from further conferences. He continues to find his adviser helpful at the upperclass levels. The adviser assists him in making out his academic program each term, gives helpful suggestions when he has difficulty in certain courses, and serves as an interested friend when the need for such arises.

The advisory system is coordinated by the Guidance Office, which endeavors to make assignments which are mutually satisfactory to both students and advisers. The Director of Guidance is available to all students as well as for psychological testing and remedial work in reading and studying. The Dean of Men, Dean of Women, and other administrative officers give assistance to students which is supplementary to the advisory system.

STUDENT ADVISORY SYSTEM

Each spring the Deans of Men and Women choose a group of students to become Freshman Advisers for the following fall season. These students are chosen, not for their high scholastic average nor for numerous extra-curricular activities, but for their ability to represent all phases of college life, and still further, to help each new student become a member of the Stetson family as quickly as possible. An adviser begins his contact with a freshman through corespondence during the summer, and such associations prove profitable to both adviser and advisee. It is the particular duty and pleasure of each adviser to stand beside his advisee until the new student is well established in college life, having found his place in the group and having adjusted himself socially and mentally to campus life.

SOME HINTS ABOUT STUDYING

It is impossible to get an education without studying. It takes work on your part as well as on the part of your professors. Effective study habits will help you not only to get a better education in less time, but also to enjoy the time you spend in studying. The following ideas have been helpful to many students:

1. Schedule a regular time to prepare for each course. Choose hours during which your mind is alert. This will save you time in the long run.

2. Make use of those "spare hours" during the day. If you budget your time well and stick to that plan, you will have much more time for "outside activities."

3. Study in a quiet place. Try the library. You'll be surprised how much faster you can get your studying done.

4. Don't read an assigned chapter straight through, as you would a mystery book. Remember these points:

   a. Preview your assignment. Scan through the chapter to discover the main points made, the chief terms used, and the general area covered. Don't read for details at this point.

   b. Read the chapter. After you have an idea of what the chapter contains, read it thoroughly. Try to get a clear understanding of the main points that are made. The details may then be associated with something definite.

c. Review the assignment. Immediately after reading a chapter, close your book and try to recall the main outline of what you have read. Quiz yourself about the material covered.

5. Remember that the author of your text had a brief outline in mind as he wrote each chapter. You don't "know" the chapter until you have that outline clearly in mind.

6. Think while you are taking notes in class or outlining reading assignments. Try to re-state what your professor or your book has said in your own words to be sure you understand what is meant.

7. Your education is not measured by the number of pages of notes that you take in class or the length of your reading outlines. Omit trivial details. Make your notes brief and to the point.

8. Your professors are more than willing to help you develop proper study habits. Just give them a chance.

STUDENT'S DEPOSIT FUND

Student banking facilities are maintained at Stetson.

Under the plan, students will be permitted and encouraged to deposit their personal cash in the Business Office of the University. Withdrawals of cash will be made at the discretion of the student. The Business Office may require a reasonable notice of withdrawals of large sums at one time due to the minimum amount of cash to be kept in this office.

The University will keep this money in an account at the Barnett National Bank designated "Stetson University Students' Deposit Fund." This fund is for the exclusive use of students, and all transactions are handled only through the Business Office.

Regular banking procedure will be put into effect. A pass book will be issued to each student having an account. This book must be presented with each transaction. A regular deposit blank will be used to deposit money and this will be recorded in the pass book to reflect not only the receipt, but also the new balance to the credit of the student.

Checks will be used for withdrawals of money and they will not be negotiable or cashed at any place except the Business Office. In effect ,they will resemble checks but actually be a receipt signed by the student that he received a certain sum of money from the Business Office which is to be charged to his personal deposit account. The pass book must be presented to make these withdrawals.

The University makes no charge for this service to the students.

SAMPSON LIBRARY

The library is a depository of knowledge, culture, and experience in printed form, and serves as a general laboratory for the entire college community—students and faculty. It is the hope of the library staff that students will use the library for both study and recreational reading. Attention is called to the new Browsing Collection established last year, which now numbers about 450 volumes, and includes the latest and best light reading in fiction and non-fiction. The staff will gladly assist any student in locating and using library materials. Hours will be found posted on the door of the library building. Each year a handbook is published which gives detailed instructions concerning the use of the library resources. This handbook may be secured at the Charge Desk in the Reading Room of the University library.

THE UNIVERSITY INFIRMARY

The infirmary service of the University, under the University physician and graduate nurses, provides for the care of all minor illnesses and the relief of acute conditions which do not require special nursing. Supplementary to the service afforded by the University infirmary, a student may at his own expense secure any physician he desires. The University requests that all illnesses be first reported to the University nurses.

Students confined to the infirmary will be charged for all meals served to them by the Commons except when the patient has a Commons meal ticket.

The infirmary sends a daily report of absences from class and chapel to the Dean of Women and the Dean of Men for students who are ill at the infirmary, or at home. Any student missing classes while ill at home should bring a signed statement to the infirmary. No student, living on campus, will be reported as absent from class unless the infirmary has been notified before the class begins, or during the class hour. All dormitory girls must sign out while remaining in the infirmary overnight. The nurse will be responsible for signing out any girl remaining in the infirmary more than one night.

A university physician is on call at all times, and visits the infirmary every day at noon.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

All students are urged to attend Sunday School and Church services on Sunday. The University cooperates to this end with all churches in DeLand. On Sunday work is suspended throughout the University, and the office buildings, the laboratories and the libraries are closed.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Student Christian Association coordinates all the religious activities of the campus in making religion a vital part of the student's college life, and those religious activities which are considered campus-wide are under the direction of this organization. This group is composed of the presidents of each organized denominational group and meets monthly to plan its activities. Among these are Religious Focus Week, Religious Emphasis Week, programs for religious holidays, and Sunday evening fellowship which is held in Allen Hall every Sunday evening following church services.

The following denominational activities are organized on the campus: Baptist Student Union, Canterbury Club, Wesley Foundation, Westminster Fellowship, and the Newman Club.

THE VESPER SERVICE

The Vesper Service is a non-denominational service which meets at 6:30 on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings in Allen Hall. The service seeks to strengthen the spiritual life of the student body.

THE BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Student Union is composed of students who are members of a local Baptist church or who participate in one or more of the unit organizations of a Baptist church. The functions of the BSU are led by a Council which includes general officers elected annually and the presidents of the following campus organizations:

WOMEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Women's Student Government Association welcomes all new women with a hope that each will find a genuine interest in its activities during her years at Stetson. Every resident woman is automatically a member of the Women's Student Government Association. It is an organization formed and controlled by the students themselves and aims at producing the best possible college life for all. It not only seeks the welfare of the group, but also seeks the welfare of the individual. It calls on each girl for a standard of conduct that the students of the past and present have wished to maintain.

Its success in the past has depended wholly upon individual dignity, integrity and responsibility. The future will be determined in like manner. Each girl is called upon for whole-hearted participation, realizing that through this participation she, as an individual, speaks and will, as an individual, contribute to the standards of Stetson University.

The resident women once a year elect an executive council which seeks to serve the students in every capacity.

Each dormitory has a house council which functions as a unit of the executive council.

PANHELLENIC

Panhellenci is an organization composed of three delegates from each sorority on the campus. There is close cooperation in Panhellenic on such matters as the maintenance of University and sorority standards, scholarship supervision, social affairs, etc. Rushing is also regulated and governed by the college Panhellenic. The main purpose of a college Panhellenic is to provide a medium through which sorority women may work together, may cooperate to unify the interests of women students.

Alpha Xi Delta—Omega Chapter was established at Stetson in 1917.

Delta Delta Delta—Alpha Delta Chapter was established in 1913. For several years previously it existed as a local.

Phi Mu—The Alpha Xi Chapter was established at Stetson in 1949.

MEMBERSHIP

Approximately one-half of the Co-eds do not belong to sororities. For various reasons these girls either may be unable to join a sorority or may not wish to become affiliated with any such group. In any case, a girl is judged by what she is as a person and not by any organization to which she belongs.

1. Sorority Chapters.—A chapter is a group of college women who have elected to establish a close affiliation with one another for four years as college students and thereafter as college and sorority alumnae. The chapters are largely self-governing. They maintain high ideals in scholarship and in social customs.

2. Rushing—At the beginning of each school year, the sorority chapters on the campus have a period known as deferred rushing followed by a short period of formal rushing. Deferred rushing gives girls who are interesetd in pledging to a sorority an opportunity to become acquainted with the sorority women on the campus and to know something of their organizations. During formal rushing each fraternity entertains rushees at a series of parties.

Alumnae members of each sorority send recommendations to their chapter for sisters, relatives or friends entering college who, they think, would be adaptable to these chapters. During formal rushing these recommended persons largely make up the group of rushees.

Informal rushing is carried on during the remainder of the college year during which time each sorority is permitted to invite rushees to the chapter room to be guests at parties, etc. This latter type of rushing is done to select new members from acquaintances made through campus contacts and new friendships as contrasted with contacts made through recommendations of alumnae and friends.

Careful thought should be exercised before a girl occepts a bid, for pledging means choosing friends for her entire active and alumnae sorority life. She should not plan to pledge to a sorority unless she intends ultimately to become a college graduate, nor should she accept the expense of membership (which is not exorbitant) until she thoroughly understands the amount involved and her ability to meet it.

All groups are worthy of membership and rushees are urged to make decisions independently and on the basis of congeniality.

It is beneath the standards of sorority women to speak disparagingly of any chapter or any sorority. A member of one organization who so forgets and criticizes any member of another group, or the group as a whole, will discredit herself in the eyes of all sorority women and rushees.

It is beneath the standards of sorority women to allow any illegal methods in rushing. A sorority member may give information on the history, standards, finances, and program of her sorority.

Detailed information concerning rushing will be given in printed form to all girls who attend the first Panhellenic meeting and express their interest in receiving this material.

REGULATIONS FOR MEN

We assume that all Stetson men are gentlemen unless and until their conduct indicates otherwise. Disciplinary matters, unless handled by the Dean of Men, will be referred to the Academic Council. While the University does not single out any particular action for penalty, each man should understand clearly that any conduct on his part which results in bad publicity for the University or which is a reflection against the ideals of the institution will cause him to be called before the Academic Council to give an account of his actions, and that he will be liable for suspension.

Because of the danger of fire, smoking is prohibited in University buildings.

Each man will see that his correct address is filed in the office of the Dean of Men.

Firearms, firecrackers, and explosives are prohibited.

The purchase, possession, or use of alcoholic beverages is forbidden.

All men who have cars will register their license tag numbers in the office of the Dean of Men.

No freshman will be allowed to live in fraternity houses; they must live in the men's dormitories.

The University reserves the right to send the Dean of Men or the Director of Off-Campus Housing, or both, to inspect any man's living quarters.

Men not living in a University building or in a fraternity house may live only in facilities that have been approved by the University.

When a man is involved in difficulty of any sort, whether academic, financial, social or otherwise, the University will notify his parents or guardian.

A student who has been suspended for violation of conduct regulations will not be allowed to attend any University social functions during the term of his suspension.

Cooking or otherwise preparing meals in dormitory rooms is not permitted.

Be sure to read carefully and to follow the rules for men's visiting hours at the Women's dormitories. Any infraction of these rules will be considered a very serious offense.

Students are advised against having charge accounts.

THE UNIVERSITY MEN'S COUNCIL

The University Men's Council, consisting of the presidents of all men's organizations, is the advisory group which reviews cases of violation of the university regulations, and renders a decision. This decision is in the form of a recommendation to the Academic Council of the University. The Men's Council serves also as a connecting link between the men of the university and the administration.

Other days	3:00 p.m.	until	8:00 p.m.
